Extra help for those who need it most

We're the people who look after the wires and cables that bring electricity to communities throughout the north of Scotland and central southern England. We don't send out electricity bills – you can choose your own company for that side of things – our job is to maintain and repair the actual electricity networks. It's also our job to fix power cuts as quickly and safely as possible.

We know that for some, a power cut can be particularly distressing and difficult. That's why we offer extra help and support to people who need it most. It helps us to help you if we know what extra support you might need. So if you require special assistance, call us on 0800 294 3259 to register for Priority Services.

You could be eligible if:

- You are deaf or hard of hearing
- You are disabled
- You have a baby under 12 months
- You are blind or partially sighted
- You are chronically ill
- You rely on powered medical equipment
- You are a pensioner

Of course, everyone has different needs so feel free to contact us to discuss your requirements.

What we aim to offer

Priority treatment during a power cut

Our priority service line is available 24 hours a day. We'll contact you, or your nominated contact, if we need to switch off your power to carry out essential maintenance.

Safety advice tailored to your needs

When requested, we'll offer you advice on how to prepare for a power cut in a format that suits your needs, e.g. Braille, textphone, audio CD or foreign language.

Connection to local emergency services

We work with local authorities, emergency services and agencies, like the British Red Cross, to provide extra support to people on our Priority Register.

Provisions for your community

During severe weather events and prolonged power outages, our connection to local welfare vehicles, help us in our aim to provide meals, drinks, warmth and charging points.

Emergency power supplies

If you're dependent on electricity (e.g. for home medical care) we aim to provide portable generators during prolonged power cuts.

Peace of mind

We offer a service where you can agree a password to use when dealing with the staff at Scottish and Southern Electricity Networks. That way we can look after your personal safety and home security.
